The Pantry does not have staffing to accept walk-in clients. If the application is approved, a volunteer will contact you to set up an appointment for you to pick up the food order at the pantry, located in the west wing of Chatham Presbyterian Church, 1835 E. Walnut St., Chatham, IL. If you need to change the pick-up time, please contact your volunteer.

At the time of pick-up, we will confirm your eligibility by reviewing your picture ID and address. If your ID does not have your current address, bring a utility bill, lease or piece of mail. If someone is picking up the order for you, have them bring their ID, your ID and your utility bill, lease or mail if your address is different than your ID.

All applications are kept confidential within the pantry volunteers. Likewise, we ask that you not discuss with others the extent or frequency of our help to you. Each case is handled on individual need and cannot be compared.

Email completed forms to foodassistance@ballcathamfoodpantry.org.
